Church Action on Poverty

No matter how hard we tried to spend sensibly over Christmas, there is no doubt that the pressure of Christmas makes most of spend more than intended. For many, January is a very difficult month with parents wondering how to feed their children or buy bits of school uniform, and the elderly wondering how they will afford their heating bills.

To do:-

- Donate used school uniform to your school uniform shop or the local charity shop.
- Don't forget to add something, however small, to the food banks every time you visit the supermarket. The foodbanks struggle to stay stocked up at this time of year.
- Challenge misconceptions around poverty. We are all struggling more than we were.
- Top up to the nearest pound at self-service tills if you are given the option.
- Donate online to Church Action on Poverty at www.church-poverty.org.uk/

Campaign in 2026

In 2026, with the renewal brought about by the Jubilee, CAFOD will continue to look at the big issues of debt, food and climate. The debt that lower-income countries are struggling with, the dysfunction of the global food system and the devastating impact of climate change are huge drivers of poverty, and they are interconnected.

If you've never campaigned before, it's just using your voice to call for something better. Signing a petition in church is campaigning. It's all about having a vision of how things could be, and despite all the challenges, it is still a beautiful thing to be part of.

You can begin by urging the Foreign Secretary to act on Sudan. Please sign the online petition at www.action.cafod.org.uk/page/183860/petition

Gospel Reflection - All God's Children

Has anyone ever told you that they're proud of you?

It's a good feeling It's a feeling that empowers ...

a feeling that makes you believe you can do anything. Imagine for a moment that day on the River Jordan at Jesus' baptism. Consider how Jesus must have felt when the heavens opened and the Spirit of God spoke the words, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." Remember that this significant event took place at the beginning of Jesus' ministry before he had gone out into the world to teach or to heal. Before Jesus had done anything at all, God was already well pleased with him..

As baptism identified Jesus, so too are we identified in our baptism as children of God. So what significance does baptism have in our lives? Do we feel proud at God's affirmation? Do we feel empowered to carry out God's plan? In truth most of us would be confounded if we had to provide an answer to these questions. To most of us, our baptism is an old photo in a forgotten album of childhood memories, or a neglected christening mug collecting dust on a high up shelf. In our own baptism we do not have the obvious benefit of God speaking directly to us from the heavens. Nevertheless, we have made promises in baptism and confirmation, and like any other promise we have to work at keeping them. Baptism isn't a one off event. Baptism is a sacrament that we have to work at daily setting aside time to think about what we are meant to be doing and having the faith that God is supporting us in our efforts.

Jesus said of his baptism. "Allow it now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfil all righteousness." Jesus didn't explain what he meant by this, but in biblical context, the word 'righteousness' is often used to express a good relationship with God. By this, we understand that our own baptism sends us off on the road to building a good relationship with God and with others, and by believing in God's backing, we are empowered to do more than we can imagine.

Parish Development Strategy

As we step into 2026, our Archdiocese is blessed with exciting opportunities to reflect Christ's presence and respond with hope to the challenges of our modern world here in Liverpool. These times invite us to embrace renewed faith, vibrant mission, creative action, and deep trust in God's guidance.

Today marks the beginning of an inspiring Archdiocesan-wide discernment process within our deanery—centred on mission and shared responsibility—where every voice and every prayer truly matters. This journey builds on the grace of our Synod 2020 and the Archdiocesan Pastoral Plan, calling us forward together.

Please take a leaflet this weekend to learn more and know that we will keep you regularly updated on how you, your parish, and our whole community can be actively involved.

World Religion Day [16 January]

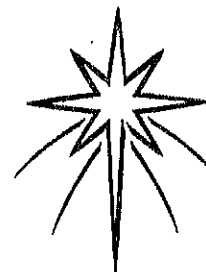

Conflict arises from fear of the unknown. Different clothes, language, customs and beliefs tend to make us feel alienated.

On this day we are invited to learn something about someone else's religion.

This isn't about a watering down of our own beliefs, but a respect for somebody else's, and the discovery that we are not worlds apart.

In the Footsteps of St Bede Pilgrimage to the North East of England Northern Saints & Martyrs (25-28 May 2026)

Father Mark Drew and the Parish of Saint Peter and Saint Michael extends an Invitation to our Family of Parishes to join them on a Pilgrimage to the North-East and follow in the footsteps of some of our Northern Saints to understand the historical impact they had on our faith. Canon Christopher reflects The Christmas season ends this weekend with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. This follows the great feast of the Epiphany when we recalled the 'manifestation' of Christ to the Gentile world after the visit of the Shepherds. In our prayers and hymns at this time we recall how this manifestation is displayed in other events in the life of Our Lord's ... His baptism in the river Jordan, the first miracle at the Wedding Feast of Cana, the widespread miracles of healing for the sick, the Scriptures that display his presence among us and finally, His message to look forward to the final manifestation when all will be fulfilled at the end of time. As one hymn concludes ... "May we praise you ever blest, God in flesh made manifest".

Last week I commented that we begin a new year looking towards the future and what it might bring. It many ways it is going to be a different and somewhat stressful year. After the Masses this weekend, leaflets will be distributed as we launch the Pastoral Development Strategy. You have already been introduced to it but now it is the real thing that is going ahead and our Deanery is involved in a pilot plan. It is clear that changes will need to be made and the strategy is to prepare for them. It affects all of us in different ways, but we cannot ignore it as though it is not our concern.

The first stage of the process will involve drawing together an audit of the parish and churches especially in relation to our family of parishes. This needs to be completed by 1 April. After we have together worked through the whole process following further steps, we will present it to the Archbishop for his consideration and proposals for the future of the whole Archdiocesan Pastoral Plan. As you can see from the leaflet 'prayer' is a pivotal part of each stage of the process. Help and support from everyone in running our parishes is essential!

One immediate effect is that each of our church properties will be surveyed for what is called the 'Quinquennial Report' (that is a five-year inspection to make sure everything is in order). We have already received the report for Sacred Heart that has already been completed because of the dry-rot problem that we faced recently. There is still much to be done at that church and parish centre and we now have a date for the survey that must take place at Saint Alban's. This corrects the false impression that priests only work on Sundays and simply minister the sacraments!

Another event among others that we can look forward to is the formal Visitation of the Archbishop to the parishes of the Deanery. He will be presiding at Saint Joseph's on 22 February and Sacred Heart & Saint Alban's on 22 March. These are dates for your diaries for when the Archbishop gets an impression of how we are fulfilling our roles as priests and people. Its purpose is to help and encourage us in our ministry as part of the Archdiocese and we cannot just assume that others will be doing this for us.

We look forward to this new year with faith and hope as it is God's work that we are all involved in. Let us continue to pray for one another. Amen

Volunteers Required at Sacred Heart & Saint Alban

In the interest of Health & Safety it would be helpful if our more able parishioners could volunteer! We would appreciate help with clearing snow and ice and gritting the pathways outside the churches in an effort to keep us all safe!

If you can assist please contact Margaret at the Parish office on 01925 630928.

Thank you in anticipation.

Prayer for Christian Unity

Lord God, we thank you for calling us into the company of those who trust in Christ and seek to obey his will. May your Spirit guide and strengthen us in mission and service to your world: for we are strangers no longer but pilgrims together on the way to your Kingdom. Amen.

Saints for the Week

12 January : St Aelred of Rievaulx (Abbot). (110-1167). Remembered for his gift for friendship, for his gentle and sensitive rule and for his enduring popular spiritual writings especially that on friendship.

13 January : St Hilary - Bishop and Doctor of the Church. (310-367). He combatted Arianism relentlessly for which reason he was exiled by the Emperor Constantine. For the purpose of strengthening the Catholic faith and interpreting sacred scripture, he published works which are outstanding in their wisdom and learning.

14 January : St Kentigern - Bishop. Secondary Patron of the Archdiocese (516-603). Kentigern (is also called 'Mungo') was a missionary to Britains and was consecrated as Bishop of Strathclyde where he vigorously defended the Church against Pelagianism. Driven out by persecution, he preached in North West England and Wales and eventually returned to Scotland and was buried in Glasgow.

B&B Stays at Castlerigg Manor - Castlerigg Manor is a Catholic retreat centre in the Lake District owned and operated by the Diocese of Lancaster. They work with more than 3,000 young people a year from around the north and beyond. When the building is empty, they offer B&B stays to individuals, families and small private groups and the money this raises supports their mission with young people. Some B&B dates have opened up this January and February. Specifically, January 5-7th, February 9-11th, and February 16-18th. It's very affordable to book and a nice chance to spend a few days in the Lakes - head to <https://castleriggmanor.com/stay-with-us/>

Dry January - Many people around the world choose to observe 'Dry January' for health reasons, to manage their drinking habits, reset their drinking, and feel more in control of their alcohol intake.

As Christians we can take this further and pledge to control our drinking. If it is presenting a barrier to God's plans. If we have a plan to make the world a better place but are always too tired and brain-fogged to make those plans a reality, it is time to take a good long look at how we can begin, maybe in small ways to begin with, to remove the barriers that are preventing us from reaching our potential.

Care for Our Common Home - Dedicate a Tree Christmas will have been hard for those who have lost a loved one. It's important to think of ways to remember that person and to mark their life. It's a lovely idea to plant a tree in your garden and design a plaque for it in memory. If you don't have a garden you can dedicate a single tree or an acre of woodland with a personalised bench, your dedication will provide a long-lasting tribute that can be visited time after time - and support local wildlife too. To find out more visit www.woodlandtrust.org.uk/support-us/give/dedications/
